ABOUT THE COVER

To honor the Fulbright Program's anniversary, IIE sponsored a competition among 1995 and 1996 Fulbright student artists to design a cover for the Institute's annual report. The winning design was created by Katja Fleischmann, a 29-year-old German student. Her Fulbright, which is sponsored by both Germany and the United States, is supporting her MFA studies in graphic design at the University of Miami.

Of her work, Ms. Fleischmann wrote: "This multilayered, colorful collage incorporates symbols of different cultures and disciplines, mixed with the word 'education' in several languages. The collage represents the dynamic and multifaceted experience one is able to have through the programs of IIE."

ABOUT THE INSTITUTE OF INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION: IIE

For more than 75 years IIE has worked to develop the leadership capacity of talented individuals from the United States and around the world. Through IIE, each year thousands of men and women study, conduct research, and receive practical training internationally. In partnership with a wide array of sponsors and through its own programs, the Institute helps to foster mutual understanding, strengthen the international competence of U.S. citizens, and build global problem-solving capabilities and institutional capacity worldwide. IIE is the most experienced nonprofit educational and cultural exchange, training, and technical assistance organization in the United States.
