IIENETWORKER & DIGITAL EDITION

Bi-annual magazine

Features pieces on all aspects of international education in the United States and around the world, including new research, as well as resources and articles that deal with everyday practice. The digital edition is an exact replica of the print version and allows your ad to be directly linked to your organization's Web site.

 IIENetworker is distributed directly to 6,100 international educators, university presidents, administrators, deans and study-abroad advisors.

IIENETWORK MEMBERSHIP DIRECTORY

Contains contact information for over 4,000 international education professionals at over 1,000 IIE member institutions around the world. The Directory includes information on opportunities on how to internationalize your institution through the various IIE programs and services; "Fast Facts" from Open Doors; and more.

 This highly influential audience represents a "Who's Who" of international education.
