INTERNATIONAL VISITOR LEADERSHIP PROGRAM VISITOR ARRIVAL LIST

Institute of International Education San Francisco

June 2013
Please note that project details may change after posted.

DATE	COUNTRIES	VISITOR PROJECT OVERVIEW
06/08/2013	United Arab Emirates	YOUTH ENTREPRENEURSHIP
		Single Country Project for 4 participants; This project will give participants the opportunity to examine how the U.S. stimulates and supports entrepreneurship and small business development at the federal, state and local levels; look at a variety and range of market niches served by successful entrepreneurs and innovators in a range of sectors including high tech, new media, finance, the arts, retail and consumer services; enhance understanding of partnerships that link capital, business development services, and market access, and that enable entrepreneurs to build high-growth and high-impact ventures; visit educational programs designed to educate and offer guidance to students interested in entrepreneurship; introduce social entrepreneurs who use innovative solutions and entrepreneurial principals to fill the gap between government and the private sector; and explore networking opportunities to share innovative business strategies and examine effective methods to attract innovation and investment.
06/13/2013	Bangladesh, Cambodia, India,	CRISIS AND DISASTER MANAGEMENT
	Nepal, Vietnam	Regional Project for 7 participants; This project will highlight U.S. methods of preparing for, managing, and responding to natural and man-made disasters. It will also focus on the challenging steps to recovery for communities and affected populations. The participants are experts in emergency preparedness, crisis management, disaster risk reduction, management, İ		recovery and relief, emergency medicine and post-

Phone: +1-415-362-6520 (Ext. 208)

Fax: +1-415-392-4667 Email: iiemembership@iie.org traumatic stress, who work in government, healthcare, humanitarian assistance, community support groups, and the media.

06/13/2013	Algeria, Bahrain, Egypt, Jordan,	SMALL BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT
	Kuwait, Oman, Qatar, Tunisia,	Regional Project for 22 participants; United Arab Emirates, West Bank,	The goals for this project are to provide an overview of Yemen	current economic, political, and social factors influencing and encouraging the development of small business and entrepreneurship in the U.S.; highlight public-private partnerships and programs supporting small businesses at the federal, state, local and grassroots levels; demonstrate the impact of U.S. small businesses on local, national and global economies; illustrate ways that small business development revitalizes underserved communities; and examine theoretical concepts and practical applications to 06/15/2012	Paris Patawana Punking Fore	operating successful small businesses. AFRICAN YOUNG ENTREPENEURS
06/15/2013	Benin, Botswana, Burkina Faso, Code d'Ivoire, Djibouti, Kenya,	Regional Project for 14 participants; Mozambique, Niger, Rwanda, South	The goals for this project are to observe the effectiveness
	Africa, Sudan	of the business sector in creating jobs and alleviating Amea, Sadan	poverty worldwide; examine the legal and regulatory systems that allow entrepreneurs to flourish, and to identify policies that may discourage such enterprises; discuss societal barriers facing entrepreneurs, especially women and other disadvantaged groups, and best practices in overcoming these restrictions; and explore various business models, support mechanisms and innovations such as micro-lending, multi-level marketing, the use of the internet, and others.
06/18/2013	Ghana, Hungary, Indonesia, Italy,	WOMEN IN TECHNOLOGY
	Malaysia, Mexico, Nigeria, People's	Multi-Regional Project for 13 participants; Republic of China, Russia, Sri Lanka,	This project is designed for women professionals working in Tunisia, West Bank	technology across government, academia, research, private industry, and the non-governmental sector. In meetings, site visits, and hands-on activities, this project will illustrate women's contributions to technological innovation (research and development), education, leadership, and public policy formation. It will introduce effective educational and mentorship programs that encourage girls and young women to pursue careers in technology fields by increasing access to networks, resources and opportunities to connect with other professional women working in all 06/10/2012	Azorbaijan	sectors of technology.
06/19/2013	Azerbaijan	URBAN PLANNING Single Country Project for 4 participants:
		Single Country Project for 4 participants;
		The goals for this project are to examine urban planning strategies in the United States; the balance of old and new development in cities and towns; better traffic planning; the use of mixed space for commercial and residential the use of finacu space for confiniercial and residential

Phone: +1-415-362-6520 (Ext. 208)

Fax: +1-415-392-4667 Email: iiemembership@iie.org planning; the role of public meetings in urban planning; negotiation analyses and practices in the planning process; the legal frameworks for urban planning; regional planning; environmental issues, urban blight and gentrification challenges; urban redevelopment and property rights; green building design; and smart technology.

06/22/2013	India	U.S. FOREIGN POLICY: THE DECISION MAKING PROCESS
, ,		Single Country Project for 3 participants;
		This project aims to enhance understanding of the U.S. foreign policy decision-making process, with emphasis on the roles of the State Department, the National Security Council, the National Intelligence Council and Congress; to explore the influence of the media, think tanks, academia, non-profit organizations, business and other associations in establishing U.S. foreign policy objectives, particularly in regards to India; to review priority issues of interest to visitors from India, including anti-terrorism strategies and the role of international organizations; and to understand
		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
		the role of state governments on foreign policy challenges, 06/25/2012	lanan	such as trade, immigration and international crime. INDUSTRY AND POLITICS
06/25/2013	Japan
		Single Country Project for 2 participants; This project will look at how public and private sectors.
		This project will look at how public and private sectors merge in both urban and rural America. Designed to provide unique perspectives from the United States to current and future political leaders and community planners in Japan, this project will expose participants to a wide range of industries, activities and contacts, through meetings with executives, interaction with workers, and site visits. Ideally, the group will learn about large-scale agriculture, the aerospace industry, relations between the corporate and political worlds, ethnic and other interest groups with particular financial/business clout, and policies to foster innovation in both public and private sectors.
06/25/2013	Australia	WOMEN IN LEADERSHIP, United Nations Assoc. Australia
06/25/2015	Australia	Individual visitor; This Individual project designed for a community activist focuses on how women in community associations - including charitable, educational, philanthropic, professional, religious, and social organizations - can improve conditions in their communities. The project addresses women's leadership opportunities by exploring novel ways in which they can lead through community service. The project will engage with public and private sector agencies and companies working on women's leadership and workplace retention, as well as gender and international development, the U.S./Australia alliance, civic participation, fostering social trust and community 1, , , , ,
	 	engagement.

Phone: +1-415-362-6520 (Ext. 208)

Fax: +1-415-392-4667 Email: iiemembership@iie.org

06/26/2013	Vietnam	INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS Single Country Project for 10 participants; This project aims to examine the status of U.S. legal enforcement of intellectual property rights (IPR); the need for IPR law to protect literary works and literature in new forms of publication; the application of copyright law to works of literature and art (primarily music); the reproduction rights and intellectual property; the importance of raising community awareness and educating the public about the legal enforcement of IPR as applied to publication, reproduction, and distribution of protected works; and the effort to counteract the pirated production and distribution of various forms of literary and artistic works: how judicial and law enforcement agencies can intervene, including the imposition of sanctions.
06/26/2013	Israel, Palestinian Territories	SOCIAL ENTREPRENEURSHIP Sub-Regional Project for 9 participant; This project aims to explore innovations that can drive social and environmental change; examine government initiatives that support civic engagement and innovation; study the rise of social entrepreneurship as a business model in business schools throughout the U.S; and observe successful models of social entrepreneurship and explore the impact of new and social media on traditional methods of fundraising, grassroots mobilization and strategic collaboration.
06/26/2013	Argentina, Australia, Bahrain,	U.S. Foreign Policy: The Decision Making Process
	Bulgaria, Croatia, Egypt, Israel,	Multi-Regional Project for 21 participants; Japan, Kuwait, Liberia, Mexico,	This project aims to examine the key players and the Nepal, Peru, Portugal, Russia,	processes of formulating, articulating and implementing Singapore, Spain, Sri Lanka,	foreign policy in the U.S. federal system; to review U.S.
	People's Republic of China, Turkey,	foreign policy priorities and trends in U.S. international Vietnam	relations; and to examine the domestic political and economic forces that influence U.S. foreign policy decisions.

Phone: +1-415-362-6520 (Ext. 208)

Fax: +1-415-392-4667 Email: iiemembership@iie.org

Today's Visitors are Tomorrow's Leaders

How will you shape tomorrow's world?

Professional Appointments | Local Hospitality | Cultural Tours | Global Voices Schools

Professional Appointments

Do you work in the same field as one of our Visitors? Spend one hour of your time with an International Visitor sharing about your respective professional experiences and discussing opportunities, trends and challenges affecting your industry here and abroad. Please contact Katka Letzing for more information or to volunteer.

Local Hospitality

You can travel the world without leaving home by being a hospitality host: invite International Visitors into your home for dinner, take them out to a restaurant, organize a picnic for them with your friends, or bring them along to a sporting event. How? Become a Host and send us a completed form with your interests. Please contact Katka Letzing for more information.

Cultural Tours

Share San Francisco with International Visitors by taking them around the city on an informal walking or driving tour. You can also join larger delegations on their bus as a city guide. Become a Host and send us a completed form with your interests. Please contact Carol Neuschul for more information.

Global Voices - School Visits

Are you an educator who would like to have one of these visitors or delegations come to your classroom? Become a part of our Global Voices Program which brings international leaders into the classroom to interact with students and teach the students about their respective country and position. Please contact Cortney Grekin for more information.

Phone: +1-415-362-6520 (Ext. 208)

Fax: +1-415-392-4667

Web: www.iiesf.org

Email: iiemembership@iie.org

For more information about getting involved with upcoming IVLP projects; Please contact our IVLP Team:

IVLP Program Director, Katka Letzing at (415) 362-6520 x220 or kletzing@iie.org IVLP Program Coordinator, Cortney Grekin at (415) 362-6520 x258 or cgrekin@iie.org

IVLP Program Coordinator, Carol Neuschul at (415) 362-6520 x269 or cneuschul@iie.org

