

Generation Study Abroad Reaches 800+ Commitment Partners

Representing an alliance of over 800 U.S. and international colleges and universities, educational associations and organizations, and country partners, Generation Study Abroad commitment partners have worked to promote equity and increase access to study abroad programs over the past five years with the goal of doubling the number of U.S. students who study abroad by 2020.

31 Commitment Partners Meet Their Goals!

In recognition of accomplishing their goal of making study abroad more equitable and of reaching their goals related to increasing study abroad participation among Latinx and Native American students, Pima Community College in Tucson, Arizona was awarded the IIE Seal of Excellence by IIE's President & CEO Allan Goodman during the IIE Summit 2019.

As a result of increasing access to study abroad programs and reaching their goal of doubling the number of students who study abroad, the University of Maryland Eastern Shore was awarded the IIE Seal of Excellence during the IIE Summit 2019.

In recognition of its SUMMIT initiative to ensure that global learning components such as off-campus global immersion experiences are infused in the core and co-curriculum for all students, Agnes Scott College was awarded the IIE Seal of Excellence as well as the Andrew Heiskell Award for Innovation in International Education during the IIE Summit 2019.
