

Background Resources for Making the Case for Study Abroad!

Team Generation Study Abroad is interested in how study abroad alumni can demonstrate the critical skills they gained abroad to employers. Take a look at these background resources to continue learning on this topic!

- Don't forget to take the Study Abroad Survey: <http://bit.do/thestudyabroadsurvey>
- View the IIE Presentation from the 2015 NAFSA Conference: Not Just "Life-Changing!" Helping U.S. Students Articulate Skills Garnered During Study Abroad

Not Just "Life-Changing!" Helping U.S. Students Articulate Skills Garnered During Study Abroad

- Check out some extra tips on how to include study abroad on your resume, interview advice and more in IIE's Alumni Re-Entry and Career Development Packet here. | <http://bit.ly/2osITMx>
- Take a look at IIE's Career Resources page curated specifically for our program alumni! | <https://www.iie.org/Connect/Alumni/Career-Resources>

Thank you for participating in the Making the Case for Study Abroad Alumni Twitter Chat!

Making the Case for Study Abroad

Wednesday, April 26, 1:00 p.m. ET

Chat with @GenStudyAbroad to talk about how study abroad alumni can demonstrate the critical skills they gained to employers.

Join the conversation:
#GenStudyAbroadChat

Take the Study Abroad Survey:
<http://bit.do/thestudyabroadsurvey>

