

ABYLKAS SAGINOV KARAGANDA TECHNICAL UNIVERSITY

Quick Facts

| | |
|--|---|
| Location (city, state): Karaganda | Website: https://www.kstu.kz/ |
| Undergraduate student enrollment: 8000+ | Public/Private: Public |
| Graduate student enrollment: 600+ | Type of Institution: University |

Institutional Description (limit 250 words):

Abylkas Saginov Karaganda Technical University, having a highly qualified scientific and pedagogical staff, powerful intellectual and material resources, aims to be a leader in the training of well-rounded professionals in engineering and technology-based innovation development of education and science in close connection with the production. STU is one of the most prestigious, dynamic and innovation-oriented University in Kazakhstan which trained more than 100,000 technical specialists. It was founded in 1953 as the Mining Institute. STU enters top 651+ world universities according to QS World University Rankings STU is associate member of EUA from 2016. STU takes #1 place in the national rating of the best technical universities in Kazakhstan. Abylkas Saginov Karaganda Technical University supports students in acquiring knowledge and experience in a multicultural and international environment. The University has signed agreements of academic cooperation and exchange with higher education institutions around the world. As the result, STU adopts the best educational practices and develops study programs in cooperation with its international partners. STU helps students to gain experience abroad. We have signed over 130 Agreements of Cooperation with international partners. Being aimed at expanding international contacts and expanding participation in international projects, STU actively participates in various competitions of international foundations, promotes project proposals aimed at modernizing and building the university's management capacity, improving the quality of education, organizing mobility and developing joint cooperation programs.

Partnership Information

Possible Academic Areas of Collaboration:

- implementation of the academic exchange program in the context of bachelor's, master's and doctoral degrees between universities, as well as internships for undergraduates, doctoral students.
- to exchange teaching staff for lectures, seminars, practical classes, laboratory work, consultations for students, undergraduates and doctoral students.
- conducting joint scientific, scientific-practical and practical events (conferences, seminars, symposiums, round tables, days, master classes).
- joint educational, educational and methodological work on the development and implementation of educational programs for bachelor's, master's, doctoral studies, as well as training programs for highly qualified researchers

Institutional Strengths:

- STU is one of the leading technical universities in Kazakhstan and Central Asia;
- TOP 651 + in QS Global World Rankings 2023;
- International partners include 140 leading research, technical and technological universities from 24 countries;
- The university has 7 engineering competence centers in partnership with multinational corporations TOTAL, FESTO, Schneider Electric, Mitsubishi Electric, Leica Geosystems, Epam Systems and FLUOR;
- 8 double - degree programs
- 46 Bachelor's programs, 29 Master's programs, 8 PhD programs;
- 600+ professors;
- More than 10,000 students, undergraduates and doctoral students' study at the university;

- More than 30 nationalities;
- The modern campus includes 8 academic buildings, 3 student dormitories with 1,500 beds

Partnership Interests: (e.g., faculty exchanges, student exchange, dual degrees, joint research, distance learning, etc.)
faculty exchanges, student exchange, dual degrees, joint research, distance learning

Interest in Partnership: Why are you interested in partnering with a U.S./Kazakh institution? What do you hope to gain from such a partnership?

The main expected results from cooperation with the United States are work on strengthening ties between universities in the United States and Kazakhstan in such areas as academic mobility, joint research activities, development and implementation of joint double-degree programs, advanced training of teachers and students, implementation of international scientific and educational projects.

Main Partnership Contact: (name, title, email): Rakhimbayeva Sabina Ermekovna - Head of the Center for International Cooperation, exchange.center@kstu.kz