The number of international students studying in the U.S. grew by 8% over the prior year and is now at a record high. International students constitute 4% of the total U.S. higher ed. population.

The majority of international students are at the undergraduate level. Business and Engineering are the most popular Fields of Study among international students.

Places of origin of international students:
- South Korea: 8%
- India: 12%
- China 31%
- Saudi Arabia: 6%

Other Places of Origin 32%

50% of international students come from China, India and South Korea.

In 2013/14 international students contributed over 27 billion dollars to the U.S. economy.

Source: U.S. Department of Commerce